Wouldn’t It Be “Loverly”?

Sprin is the time to hold club scholarship auditions. This should include the local club male and female voice competition. Wouldn’t it be “loverly” if these students would win an expense paid trip by the club to represent that club at the Fifty-eighth Annual Jeanie Stephen Auditions taking place October 4-5, 2008, at the Stephen Foster Folk Cultural Center in White Springs, Florida.

The information is on the web-site. Remember the female age is 17-23 years. The male age is 18-24 years. A great place to find talent is the local college in the district. It is not surprising that the college might never have heard of the event.

Reports Due to FFMC Chairmen & NFMC Chairman.

Remember, all Senior Club Presidents, District Club Presidents, and FFMC Board of Directors, received a CD of the NFMC 2007-2009 Manual. In it are all of the report schedules and forms for the clubs to complete. One form that is very important is the Senior Club Report. It is a synopsis of what was done by the club, how many members, how many programs, how many scholarships were given out, etc. This gives both FFMC and NFMC statistics to use to improve and assist the organization to grow and keep funding scholarships and awards.

It is available on line www.nfmc-music.org and on page 129a in the NFMC Manual 2007-2009. Remember each club president has one in CD form.

Any questions contact Chairman Wanda Wiranis (wandapiano@aol.com) or phone 954-587-1967.

Young Artist to Perform
Very Important………..Read On

The National Federation of Music Clubs started its Young Artist Program in 1915. These renowned auditions are the oldest and one of the most important competitions in the Western Hemisphere. They occur every two years with the finals held at the next NFMC National Convention in Orlando in June, 2009, at the Rosen Plaza Hotel. Young artist classifications are: Piano, Woman’s solo voice, Man’s solo voice, string instruments (violin, viola, cello, and double bass). In Jacksonville on Friday evening, May 30th, one of our current young artists, Nathan Knutson will perform in concert on a piano that Rachmanioff reportedly played.

The concert will be held at the Riverside Presbyterian Church just a few short blocks from the Hyatt Regency Hotel. To quote Vickie Stake, St. Johns District President, “This church has acoustics equal to those in fine concert halls of Europe.”

Nathan will also conduct a Master Class on Friday afternoon prior to the concert.

Nathan grew up on a farm in Leola, South Dakota. His parents started him on the piano at the age of five because he finished his chores so fast and needed something to do. In eighth grade he began winning piano competitions. He started playing with the South Dakota Symphony Orchestra when he was 17.

He was graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in piano performance studying with Paul Barnes. Then he attended the Cleveland Institute studying with Antonio Pompa Baldi graduating and received his masters in 2005.

Now he is teaching at Minnesota State University at Mankato. His wife is the music director at Mankato’s Ss. Peter & Paul Catholic Church.

He studied in France with instructors from the Paris Conservatory of Music. He also performed at the Busendorf Saal in Vienna, Austria.

He is currently the director of Schola Cantorum. Founded in 2006 the schola provides sacred music for the Roman Rite Mass. The group constitutes a “school” and thus trains its singers in the art of performing Gregorian chant, sacred polyphony and musical composition of high artistic and liturgical merit.

The Mason & Hamlin piano company recently established The Mason & Hamlin Prize, a cash award given to Nathan Knutson at the 2007 NFMC biennial convention in Salt Lake City in June. Making the presentation was the company’s Artistic Director, Jan Glazier. He said “We’re pleased and proud to establish the Prize in conjunction with the National Federation of Music Clubs because we share the same beliefs and goals as well as a deep commitment to Music.”
