High Notes From Your President
Ann B. Stockton

This has been a busy spring and summer season for the federation. We had two conventions in May. We were pleased to have Carolyn Nelson, NFMC President, as our honored guest for the Junior Convention held in Jacksonville at the UNF. The quality of music was outstanding. A special thank you goes to the Junior Festival team led by Vickie Stake and Lisa Smith who did a wonderful job in lining up hotel accommodations, scheduling of the events, working with UNF, securing the judges and arranging and tuning for the pianos. This is just a small part of the things they do to insure a successful experience for all who participate. Great job!

The 94th FFMC Spring Convention, held in Coral Gables Holiday Inn, had as our featured speakers Drs. George and Ouida Keck. Their words of wisdom were greatly appreciated. The team of hard workers from Royal Poinciana District, led by Convention Chairman Patricia H. Clarke and District President, Teresa Coopman, showed all of us true Southern hospitality and a wealth of talent from their area. Workshops were held by Rob Coopman with therapists on the importance of Music Therapy, Dr. George Keck on the NFMC Archives and the secrets that have been revealed in the records, and Dr. Ouida Keck on the many competitions and awards offered by NFMC. Their keynote address was a skit that showed NFMC through the years. The whole experience was an enjoyable one. Thank you, Royal Poinciana District, for a job well done!

In June, seven of our FFMC members went to Greenville, S.C. for the NFMC National Convention. Those in attendance were Dave Stockton, myself as FFMC President, Michael Edwards as NFMC 1st VP, Suzanne Carpenter as past NFMC Treasurer and Member at Large, Lisa Smith as FFMC Festival Chair, Peggy Willis as NFMC Board Member representing Florida, and Barbara Kirby, our past FFMC VP. I was pleased to participate in the NFMC Festival Chorus while at convention. We attended meetings from the different areas such as the Arts Division, Junior Division, and Competitions. There are several changes that will involve all of us in Florida that we will be sharing with you.

I am looking forward to seeing you at your district meetings and hope to share the changes from our state and national conventions that will involve us. As suggested at our state convention, I have been asked to present a mini-workshop for the clubs' leadership and members so they will become familiar with some of the procedures of our Florida Federation, such as how to elect officers, how to plan your programs and what to cover in your meetings. There are so many things that we do that we just take for granted and assume all the other clubs do the same. The dates of the district meetings are on the calendar in the directory section and our website.

In an effort to become more of a presence in the state, district president scholarships and music study grants were made available by the FFMC to district presidents to be given to those who met the basic requirements. The music study grants encouraged clubs to offer classes on areas of music for their local community. An article concerning this was printed in the Music Club Magazine this past year. These grants are still available for the districts that did not participate last year. The districts that received monies for the music study grants can still receive money, but they must match the funds given to them. Scholarships are also available to all districts. See accompanying article.

October 4-5, FFMC will sponsor the 63rd Annual Jeanie/Stephen Foster Auditions, held at the Stephen Foster Folk & Culture Center in White Springs. Vocal contestants are sponsored by local senior clubs from around the state. See accompanying article.

This issue of Sharps and Flats is accompanied by our 2013-2015 FFMC Directory that will give you the names and addresses of your state officers, district and club presidents and treasurers, division and committee chairmen. This will be helpful reference for you to keep.

NFMC CONVENTION

The Southeast Region has published an excellent cookbook to raise monies for scholarships to Brevard Summer Music Camp. The program to raise monies was called Bucks for Brevard. The cookbook is filled with whole meal menus with notes on where the recipes came from and other personal information to make it more interesting. I have some of the cookbooks to sell if anyone is interested at $20 each. They are beautifully done with recipes that have been tried and tested by some of the leaders in our federation.

Florida Fellows – Now a Dozen Years Old!

Bess Stallings, Chairman

The annual Florida Fellows luncheon at the 94th annual FFMC convention was a unique one this year. We took a “trip down memory lane” and reminisced about the past 12 years since the inception of Florida Fellows at the Jacksonville Adams Mark Hotel.

Florida Fellows Chairman, Bess Stallings, presided over the luncheon meeting and named the 17 original Florida Fellows, 4 of whom were present.

She then gave a tribute to Florida Fellows founder, Dr. Isabella Laude, who via video received a standing ovation of thanks for her vision for FFMC and its Operating Endowment Fund. To date, there is $41,000 helping to carry out the goals of our Federation. Thanks, Isabella, for your vision!

Two new Fellows were added to the fold this year--Dave Stockton of Lakeland, husband of our state president, who introduced him, and Maria Laude of Tampa, daughter of Isabella and Dr. Walter Laude. She received this news, also via video, while at the bedside of her mother in Babson Park. The “formal” presentation will be made at the October Bay Ridge District meeting in Wauchula. Congratulations, Dave and Maria!!

Florida Fellows is composed of proud FFMC members who share a true love of the organization by helping provide funds to keep it financially sound.

In the upcoming months, other members are encouraged to contact Bess, as chair, to inquire about the procedure to become an FFMC Florida Fellow. Call her at (863)773-3594 or e-mail her at bessstallings2@gmail.com. She’s waiting to hear from you!!

2013 MEMBER OF THE YEAR
Sherry Pollock Chairman

We are pleased to announce ROBERT J. COOPMAN as our 2013 Member of the Year. Robert has been a very successful President of the Music Club of Hollywood. The Scholarship program he instituted for the District has been very successful. Many of his accomplishments can help us with ideas for our Local Clubs:

1. Grew the membership to over a 100 members.
2. Used various forms of fundraising which included silent auctions, banquets, corporate and individual sponsorships, and co-sponsored with other service organizations.
3. Free public performances at various venues that created awareness in the community of the good works of the Music Club.
4. The club has co-sponsored programs and education series with community non-profits such as Friends of the Library, the Historical Society and the Miami Piano Festival.
5. He expanded the scholarship program from 4 to 10 college scholarships and 10-12 summer camp scholarships.
6. He has served on the Finance committee the past few years. Robert proposed funding the districts from FFMC funds for Public Auditions to award scholarships and provide Music Study Series.
7. Robert lectures at different Rotary Clubs explaining the Music Club of Hollywood’s non-profit goals and services. Robert emphasizes the benefits of Music Therapy for rehabilitation.
8. Robert has had articles published in FFMC Sharps and Flats and an article in NFMC Music Club Magazine and MUCH more.

Congratulations Rob! You have set a wonderful example for us. We will try to follow your example and get creative and come up with more ways to promote music for our future with FFMC and NFMC.

Archivist Report
Lisa Smith, FFMC Archivist

I am pleased to report that my first year as FFMC Archivist has been a productive and enlightening one. Last June, I was fortunate to attend a very informative workshop at the National Federation of Music Clubs Fall Convention in Indianapolis headed by the National Archives Chairman, Dr. George Keck. While perusing through the numerous historical documents located at NFMC headquarters, I found one resource dating from 1923 titled “History and Outlook of the Junior Department of the National Federation of Music Clubs,” This amazing document chronicles the birth and formative years of the Junior Division state by state.

Throughout 2011 and 2012, I received many FFMC documents and have begun the process of digitizing. Some of the articles include:

- Some FFMC Spring & Fall Convention documents from 1998 to present.
- The formation of a new district 1991-1992
- Minutes from the 1968 Orlando Convention
- 1982 NFMC Congressional Charter; publicity document
- FFMC dated photographed from NFMC Archive dating from 1923
- Sharps and Flats Newsletters from 2005-present.

These digital documents are stored on my computer as well as an internet “Dropbox” which allows these items to be shared. Dropbox is also available on mobile devices such as an iPhone.

Suzanne Carpenter and I have visited the FFMC Archives in White Springs. While there we began to transfer documents from cardboard boxes to a more durable plastic container which is labeled and numbered.

For 2013-2014 my goals as FFMC Archivist are:

- To continue scanning FFMC documents and converting the archives from paper to digital records.
- To make another trip to White Springs to finish transferring documents to plastic containers and to eliminate unnecessary duplicates of documents
- To scan deteriorating documents.

If your club or district has outstanding programs, projects, performances, or anything you would like to have included in the FFMC archives, please feel free to send them to me. If they are paper documents and you do not wish to entrust them to the Postal Service, you can always give them to me at convention. I would love to add anything you feel would contribute to the valuable history of FFMC.

Stephen Foster/Jeanie Auditions
Ann Stockton, Chair

Join us as we celebrate 63 years of Jeanie Auditions at the Stephen Foster Folk Culture Center in White Springs, FL on October 4-5, 2013. The Stephen Foster/Jeanie Auditions are co-sponsored by the Stephen Foster State Folk & Culture Center and the Fla. Federation of Music Clubs. It is open to promising young vocalists capable of giving a creditable concert performance. Qualified judges will choose a Jeanie and Stephen who will be awarded $1500, as well as $1000 for a Jeanie maid and Stephen runner-up.

We are asking for your help in several ways. We have had to reduce the amount given to the Jeanie maid and Stephen runner-up due to the reduced amount of money left in the designated funds for the awards. It was necessary to eliminate a Jeanie maid for this reason. We would like you to encourage individuals or clubs to give additional monies to be put in the designated funds account for the awards.

There are other ways you can help. We are asking for your help in finding and sponsoring vocalists. Each vocalist must be sponsored by a senior club. The applications must be received by September 10th. If you have difficulty in finding a candidate, I will be glad to match you up with a young person who has expressed an interest in the competition who does not have a sponsor.

Everyone is responsible for their own lodging expenses unless this is provided by the sponsoring club. A large block of rooms have been reserved for the Auditions at a special rate of $50.00 a night at the Lake City Days Inn. This is off of Exit 303. Please contact them for a room at this rate as soon as possible. Telephone: 386/758-4224. Make sure you mention the auditions to get this special rate. I have also reserved 3 cabins at the park at a cost of $100 + tax a night. These cabins are beautifully equipped with a kitchen, screened porch, 2 bedrooms with room for 4 people. These cabins are popular, so I reserved these for us. Please let me know if you would like one.

Donations from clubs and individuals are gratefully accepted to help with the expenses. May I take this opportunity to say how much the Stephen Foster Memorial Committee appreciates the financial effort that senior clubs have made in the past for this project. A donor list is included each year in the printed Stephen Foster / Jeanie Program Book with these categories:

CAMPTOWN RACES...... Under $100
BEAUTIFUL DREAMER......$100 - $199
OH! SUSANNA...............$200 or more

Please send donations to Suzanne Carpenter, FFMC Treasurer, PO Box 357275, Gainesville, FL 32635 earmarked for the Stephen Foster/ Jeanie Auditions. ALL MONIES ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE.

Information regarding qualifying rules, schedules, instructions and applications can be downloaded from the FFMC website: ffmc-music.org, or by calling Ann Stockton, Chairman at 863-701-2813 or e-mail: AnnsMusic@verizon.net. Thank all of you and the wonderful Stephen Foster Memorial Committee for your help and interest in making this a success.

ST. JOHNS DISTRICT
Lisa Smith, President

St. Johns District, in conjunction with Harmony Senior Music Club, had its end of the year meeting and luncheon July 10, 2013 at the home of Debra Carter. During that meeting, new officers were installed for both the district and the club. Additionally, we heard a wonderful performance by our 2013 Mary Elizabeth Land Scholarship recipient, Andrew Callahan, a student of Gavin Taylor. Our fall kick-off meeting is scheduled for September 28, 2013 at Lakewood Presbyterian Church. We are enthusiastically beginning to plan for hosting the 95th FFMC Spring Convention, May 15-17, 2014.

Our district is putting together a Classical Music Series for our Music Study program. We are looking forward to having our 2nd annual Scholarship Audition in the spring.

The Orlando Music Club welcomed Gayle Stein as their new president. They are staying busy with monthly Community Service Recitals and preparing for their annual Awards auditions and Masters classes. They also gave out summer music camp scholarships and sponsored a candidate for the Jeannie Auditions.

Our annual meeting will be held in October featuring our Scholarship Winners.

I would also like to take this time to thank Robert Coopman for his wonderful ideas to make our presence known in the community and to help demonstrate what FFMC and our local clubs are doing to promote music.
SUWANNE DISTRICT

The Village Summer Camp

Kole Ada Odutola tells a story from his native land, Nirobe, through song, dance, and poetry.

Foundation for the Promotion of Music continues to expand its support for the study of music! A Musical Offering, Inc. www.amusicaloffering.org conducted its 3rd annual summer music camp with the generous support of Holy Faith Church and the Foundation for the Promotion of Music (the senior club of the Suwannee District).

The Village summer music camp was held at Holy Faith Church July 22-26 in Gainesville, Florida. The music camp provided opportunities for children ages 4 through 18 to explore the nature of music from around the world, explore how we form relationships through music, and how other cultures inspire our own musical language.

Each day began with a presentation by a guest artist from a different continent including Africa, Australia, India, North America and South America. Students reflected on the various presentations for inspiration as they explored “hand-on” musical stations where they created instruments, created vocal and instrumental pieces, explored how sound is produced, studied elements of music such as melody, harmony, rhythm, form, sang and performed written and improvised music. The last day of the camp parents and the public were invited to witness the musical demonstration created during the 5-day music camp in The Village.

Guest Musical Artists included Kole Ade Odutola specializing in African music and culture, Graduada Delicoda, specializing in Brazilian music & culture, Kiriel Solene specializing in indigenous Native American flutes and & Australian didgeridoos, Aswin Ramanathan specializing in violin and Indian music & culture.

Teachers were Nansi Carroll, Cedric Douglas, Cristina Marie Logan, Hannah Micheaux, Sara Nussel, and Alyssa Rodgers

For more information about the Foundation for the Promotion of Music, visit www.thefpm.org and to learn more about The Village summer camp activities, visit www.amusicaloffering.org.

Sacred Music
Bess Stallings

In preparing my report for convention I looked over my own club’s programs for the year and was astounded when I realized the every program we’ve had this year has included at least one or two sacred songs.

I share this to encourage you to look over your past programs and those you are planning for this new club year and add Sacred Music. Use the NFMC Together We Sing songbook, encouraging various members to share the background information provided on the month’s selection and even do some added research. Just remember to document all this so that you can compete for awards. Be sure to keep the printed programs! Any publicity in the newspapers? The reporting form is available on the FFMC website, but as your chairman, I’ll be glad to provide one for you. Don’t forget to order your Together We Sing songbooks.

The Sacred Music forms provide space for some history of the roles your fellow members have played through the years in providing sacred music to your community. They want to know how many members have served as church musicians for 50 years or more. They also want to know how many members participate in their church music program. Have I whetted your appetite enough so that you can see how easy this topic of Sacred Music would be to win awards for your club? I look forward to reading each and every entry you send me explaining how Sacred Music continues to enrich our lives.

ARTS DIVISION

I am pleased to introduce some new leaders in this division. These are the ones you will be corresponding with in regards to your scheduled club programs for the coming year. Heading this division is Anne Cruxent. Anne is a past president of the Coral Gables Music Club and is a past FFMC VP. Kathy Rodgers will be the new Crusade for Strings Chairman. Kathy is a string teacher from the Orlando area. Chai L.Chien is chairing the Together We Sing and Opera Departments. She is the president of the Music Club of Hollywood, Florida. A special thank you goes to Chamber Music Chair Patricia Clarke, Choral Music Chair Judy McLaurin, International Music Chair Cecila Laude, Music in Poetry Chair Wilma Greenwood, Sacred Music Chair Bess Stallings, National Music Week Chair Claire-Frances Whitehurst and National Music Week Essay Chair Marian Cox. We are looking forward to working with this great team!!
TOGETHER WE SING
2013-2015 Edition

At the NFMC National Convention in Greenville the 2013-2015 Together We Sing songbooks were unveiled. We were curious to see what songs were included and became more excited as we went through the songs. They are now available to purchase for your club.

Did you go to school and attend assemblies where everyone sang out of songbooks such as the Golden Book? That is where a number of us have learned how to sing folk songs, our national anthem, patriotic and campfire songs. It was fun. Today scenes mentioned above are not done, so generations of schoolchildren are not learning these songs of yesteryear.

As the songbook editor Carole Flatau says, “It is our privilege and responsibility as members of the NFMC to ensure that the songs of our heritage do not fade away and die. Singing is good for us physically and mentally. Singing is fun”. Knowing that singing together unites groups, NFMC has compiled a booklet of songs from around the country. Inside you will find two years’ worth of songs with their histories given. The songs are written in singable keys in four part harmony with easy accompaniment. Clubs are encouraged to use the books during their meetings. The NFMC Benediction The Gift of Song, the Federation Hymn, rounds and the national anthem are also included.

If you are interested to having these for your club, go to the www.nfmc-music.org website to the Publications link. They are listed in the Arts Division section. These can be purchased for a cost of only $1.25 each for a bound songbook, or $2.50 for one that is a spiral bound. The spiral bound one is recommended for the accompanist or song leader.

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Chai L. Chien as the FFMC Chairman for Together We Sing. Congratulations, Chai.

Claire-Frances Whitehurst

National Music Week will be celebrated May 4-11, 2014, using the theme of Music... The Dance of Life. While you are planning your programs for the year, please try and schedule events in your community and club during that week.

Congratulations to Matthew Falgowski of Sarasota, who was named the national winner from Florida. TEACHERS-Please encourage your students to enter. NOW is the Time-There is money to go to the Winners!

A big applause goes to Dr. L. A. Denning for encouraging his South Miami Middle School Wildcat Music Club to write over forty essays. The other teachers include Alan Caves, Marian Cox, Peggy Edwards, Suzannne Hollis, Loretta Hake and Linda Rudzinski. This is something we wish other junior clubs and studios would do.

We are so grateful to the judge, Dr. Sylvia Reynolds Eckes, Professor emerita of Piano from Ohio University. What a job!!!

National Music Week will be celebrated May 4-11, using the theme of Music... the Dance of Life. The deadline for the essay contest is Dec. 15. The entry fee of $5, voted on at our spring convention, will be waived for this year due to a donation by the chairman to cover expenses. FFMC JUNIOR COUNSELOR REPORT 2013
Vickie Ball Stake, State Junior Counselor

Our 76th Annual Junior Convention provided wonderful music and incredible inspiration by and for students of all ages and levels. May 3-4 at University of North Florida in Jacksonville, Florida, music once again powerfully spoke in hearts, halls, and auditoriums in spite of rain, rain, and more rain.

Scholarship monies of over $10,000 were awarded to some of over 1,400 students who attended this year.

The UNF staff was incredibly helpful in the many details involved to masterfully produce an event of this magnitude. UNF Piano Pedagogy Chair, Erin Bennett, was extremely helpful in our understanding all piano options already on campus.

Judges were flown in from various states, being so thrilled to come, they used their judges’ pay for airline tickets. Did they make money? No, just enjoyed being in the midst of such a tribute to music. Dedicated judges from various parts of Florida teamed up with national guests to form strong judging units in all our competition halls.

Volunteers, especially from St. Johns District, monitored, and brought food while Junior officers and our own State President and her husband, Ann and Dave Stockton, calmed and informed the anxious hearts and minds at the Registration Desk. Food, drinks, and snacks were prepared for over 100 each day.

May 3-4 at University of North Florida in Jacksonville, Florida, music once again powerfully spoke in hearts, halls, and auditoriums in spite of rain, rain, and more rain.

Our 76th Annual Junior Convention provided wonderful music and incredible inspiration by and for students of all ages and levels. May 3-4 at University of North Florida in Jacksonville, Florida, music once again powerfully spoke in hearts, halls, and auditoriums in spite of rain, rain, and more rain.

Judges were flown in from various states, being so thrilled to come, they used their judges’ pay for airline tickets. Did they make money? No, just enjoyed being in the midst of such a tribute to music. Dedicated judges from various parts of Florida teamed up with national guests to form strong judging units in all our competition halls.

Volunteers, especially from St. Johns District, monitored, and brought food while Junior officers and our own State President and her husband, Ann and Dave Stockton, calmed and informed the anxious hearts and minds at the Registration Desk. Food, drinks, and snacks were prepared for over 100 each day. Suzanne Carpenter, Michael Edwards, Lisa Smith, Gavin Taylor, Lisa Moore and Ludi Mocke sacrificed day after day, Suzanne Carpenter, Michael Edwards, Lisa Smith, Gavin Taylor, Lisa Moore and Ludi Mocke sacrificed day after day, and incredible inspiration by and for students of all ages and levels.
