JUNIOR ESSAY CONTEST
Marian Cox, FFMC State Chair

Thirteen Juniors entered the FFMC/NFMC Essay Contest. Essays were great, according to the judge, Leiland Theriot, Executive Director of Florida Alliance for Arts Education. I first want to thank the dedicated teachers: Amy Duncan, Jennifer Guzman, Suzanne Herman, Eleonora Levando, Laura Owens and myself who encouraged their students to write the essays. Our state 7-8th grade winner was Jasmine Virkler, from Kissimmee. Second place went to Alisa Gulyansky, from Sarasota. The 9-12th grade winner was Jordyn Potts from Windermere, and 2nd place honors went to Olivia Shore, from Sarasota. The NFMC changed some of its essay rules, regarding where, and exactly what to send, for the national judging. Next year the process will be much easier. The Gulf Coast Music Club of Sarasota, conducted its own essay contest, and gave a prize, which encouraged more students to participate. I hope more senior clubs will do that next year.

The 17th Annual Opera Brunch
Supporting Young Aspiring Musicians

“Most everyone enjoys listening to music. Whether that be in the car, on our cell phones, at the local restaurant, at home, outdoor events, with friends, and yes, even while shopping. Music sets the mood and instantly changes the atmosphere. Behind all music is a person who created the melody, wrote the words, and composed the song to be performed by those who are musical. That person started out as a young student in the local school system which most likely had a music program. Years of private lessons, practice, and collaboration with other musicians matured the student to the next level of pursuing a college degree in music.

The Choctaw Bay Music Club is a local music lovers group (since 1977) that provides music scholarships for college and summer music camps to our community students. Last year, they donated $7,800 to deserving music students. Their 17th Annual Opera Brunch Music Scholarship Fundraiser was February 23rd (Saturday) at the Niceville Community Center, located at 204 N Partin Drive, Niceville, FL.

Attendees enjoyed a delicious brunch provided by the Corner Café, an amazing performance by the Pensacola Opera Artists in Residence who sang a variety of music including from the Opera “Florencia in the Amazon”.

In addition, we enjoyed a raffle with lots of choices from gift cards, tickets, wine, art work, jewelry, etc... Please join us for the fun as we supported our next generation of aspiring accomplished musicians. To learn more about the Choctaw Bay Music Club visit our website at www.ChoctawBayMusicClub.org.”

This year the Opera Brunch was very successful with around 115 tickets sold! The Pensacola Opera Artists in Residence performed for 40 minutes plus, we had the honor of this year’s winner of the Jeanie, Grace Lengacher (1st place winner of the Stephen Foster Jeanie/Stephen Competition) performed beautifully as Dr. Theresa McRee accompanied on piano. Grace is a Freshman attending Florida State University in Tallahassee.

Lake District

Belina Smith, President

The Lake District once again had a very successful and well-organized Junior Festival this February thanks to teachers like Sandy Kupetz, Priscilla Heffield, Janice (Martin) Parkes, Sherry Pollock, Barbara Browning, Deborah DoCarmo and many others who did an amazing job of scheduling students, judges and monitors. As we all know, with so many participants is not an easy task to make everything run so perfectly! Well done everyone!

Our Senior Clubs:

Oviedo Music Club with Jillian Marini as president is our newest club that was created a few months ago.

Orlando Music Club Continues their monthly Community Recitals at Retirement Centers where students from different teachers perform in a recital setting. This is an event that benefits students, by giving them an opportunity to become comfortable with performing in front of other people, and the residents, by providing an enjoyable afternoon with young people playing instruments or singing. The String Masterclass with Dr. Alvaro Gomez had a great attendance and was a big success.

Orlando Music Club also sponsored Nicolas Ikegami for the Jeanie/Stephen Competition. He is a student at Stetson University and was nominated as the Stephen Runner Up for 2019.
The annual Piano and String Award Competition is taking place this month with 16 students participating.

Music Club of Central Florida (former Wednesday Music Club), celebrated 100-year anniversary this past January. They hold their monthly music programs at the First United Methodist Church in Deland where they feature one outstanding student each time and award them a music award. An interesting tradition that I thought all the clubs could embrace is that they also give each new member a club pin as a membership keepsake.

South Metro Music Club of Central Florida organizes monthly recitals to different retirement homes.

East Coast Music Club participates every year in the Junior Festival.

Music Club of Hollywood, Chai L. Chen, President

Celebrating our 70th Anniversary!

The Music Club of Hollywood was founded in 1949 as the Tuesday Morning Musicale. We were chartered in 1959 into the National Federation of Music Clubs. In bounded spine scrap books from 1970’s to the 1980’s, we know that we had a choir, monthly lunches with performances by student musicians, newspaper articles and musical programs including many pictures. One prized memento in our collection is a large trophy from a local Hollywood newspaper, The Hollywood Sun Tattler, in the 1980’s honoring the club for being an active non-profit organization during that time. How would we ever keep up with what they did back in-the-day, when service clubs were so popular? Our secret recipe is co-promoting musical programs with other local non-profit organizations. This has been the key to our club’s sustainability and growth. We have expanded our audience by providing various programs such as folk music, jazz and blues and have presented our own musical-documentary production of “I Love Hollywood” with original music by members of our club. Besides our monthly musical presentations at the Anne Kolb Nature Center, we have added on-going musical programs at assistant living facilities; we became a community sponsor at Topeekeegee Yugnee Park for their outdoor Jazz & Blues Music festivals. We also partnered with the Nova Life-Long Learning Institute and with the Hollywood Historical Society. These include speaking at their functions and bringing student performers to fit in their programs. An upcoming big function will be held on Sunday, May 5th with local recording artist Nicole Yarling. We are committed being a relevant service club in Hollywood by bringing great music to the community.

LAURA CAROLINE LIU AWARDED 2019 SOUTHEASTERN NFMC WENDELL IRISH VIOLA AWARD!

A native of Miami, seventeen-year-old violist Laura Caroline Liu is a senior and cum laude scholar at Ransom Everglades School. She studies viola with Michael Klotz, violist of the Amernet Quartet, the artist faculty quartet-in-residence of Florida International University. Miss Liu writes:

“I would like to recognize Chai Chen, president of the Music Club of Hollywood and Mr. Harold Rosen of the Music Club of Hollywood, as my mentor in the NFMC. Their tireless efforts to support advancing young players with performance opportunities and scholarship are unparalleled in our South Florida community. I have received generous support for summer study from the Music Club of Hollywood including the President’s Award last year, for which I am very grateful and appreciative.”
Seminole District

Marian Cox, President

Our District takes in the Gulf Coast, from Bradenton down past Ft. Myers. We have four senior clubs, including Calusa Musicale, Gulf Coast Music Club, Sarasota Music Club, and the Musical Manatees. We had three area Junior Festivals, and nine entries in our Essay Contest. All four Senior Clubs were represented at our District meeting and luncheon held in October. We were so happy to meet our state president, Cheryl Poe, who gave a very informative program. The business meeting was followed by a delicious lunch, concluding with musical entertainment from all four Senior Clubs.

Marian Cox, Cheryl Poe, Kaylee Jones, Suzanne Herman, James Boormon

Sarasota Music Club

Mary Webb, President

If one word could be used to describe Sarasota Music Club this year it would be ENTHUSIASM. Performances by outstanding musicians has led to enthusiastic attendance at each and every meeting/concert. Our auditorium has been filled to capacity every month.

There has also been an enthusiastic effort to widely distribute the colorful rack cards publicizing our programs, and as new people come and respond to our warm welcome and outstanding programs, we have added quite a few new members to our group.

We have been privileged to hear some of the very finest musicians: a flutist, harpist, wonderfully vibrant pianists playing many different styles, outstanding vocalists and instrumentalists – the best our area has to offer.

Further enthusiasm was felt as we sponsored a young tenor, Devin Eatmon, auditioning for the uniquely Florida Jeanie/Stephen competition. He was declared the Stephen winner, and we’re looking forward to hearing him perform for us in a program next season.

Enthusiasm spills over every year in high anticipation of sponsoring a music scholarship competition in partnership with Artist Series Concerts of Sarasota in April. Suncoast Music Scholarships make a total award of $20,000 to extremely talented 12th, 11th and 10th graders to help them in their musical studies and endeavors. The year will close as we hear the four 12th grade winners perform at our final luncheon program of the year.

We hope that all of this enthusiasm leads to even more outstanding programs and projects for next year!

HOT OFF THE PRESS!

Terri Jean Thomson has just been declared the winner of the NFMC Thelma Adams Robinson Ballet Award, receiving $2,500. Mis Thomson is seventeen years old and ballet student at the Sarasota Ballet Margaret Barbieri Conservatory.
The Harmony Music Club of Jacksonville held its fund raiser in November to benefit the greater Jacksonville Piano Festival which will be held on Saturday, April 6, 2019. The fund raiser "On the Town" included junior club board members who modeled from two boutiques plus a concert featuring three students from the studio of Aida Ribeiro Mechetti. Co - chairmen were Ludi Mocke and Connie Lill. The club is working to promote music by adding non-teacher members who enjoy music and "doing lunch."

Saint Johns District Festival was held February 22 - 23, 2019. Many of the students received superiors and are looking forward to competing at the FFMC Junior Convention the first weekend in May at the University of North Florida.

We are busy working on our spring 2019 events. On Jan. 18-19 the Jeanie/Stephen auditions were held at the Stephen Foster Folk Culture Center State Park in White Springs. The event began with the Golden Slipper Gala Dinner on Friday evening at the Woman’s Club in Lake City. The dinner included a silent auction, musical entertainment, and the introduction of the Jeanie/Stephen candidates for 2019. On Saturday the new Jeanne/Stephen winners were introduced!

We had two very successful Gainesville Area Jr. Festivals. The Piano and Voice Festival was held on Feb. 2-3 at UF and the String Festival was held on Feb. 22-24 at Celebration United Methodist Church. Our Guest Artist Recital will be on March 24 at the Thomas Center in Gainesville.

We were thrilled to feature Jasmin Arakawa, a renowned pianist from the University of Florida. On May 5 we will have our Annual Meeting and Awards Recital. The winners of the Sarah Baird Fouse Wind Award, the Dorothy Reaves String Award, the William Dishman Brass Award and the Betsy Schnell Piano Award will perform. The Musician of the Year award will be presented to Ruth Lewis—a teacher, pianist, organist, and choral director. We are looking forward to the FFMC Jr. Convention on May 3-4 and the NFMC Biennial Convention on June 18-22. We are having an exciting year and are already planning for 2019-2020!
